

Biography

Nahida is an international student in North Carolina State University and originally from Bangladesh. She received her B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees in Applied Chemistry & Chemical Engineering from University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. She was a research fellow in Center for Advanced Research in Sciences (CARS) in University of Dhaka. She was a part-time lecturer in the department of Textile Engineering in Daffodil International University, Bangladesh. Currently, she is pursuing her Ph.D. in the department of Textile Engineering, Chemistry & Sciences in Wilson College of Textiles in North Carolina State University. She loves to travel, cook and play badminton in leisure time. She is enthusiastic to contribute for the society. Back in her country, she donated blood and took part in awareness campaign for welfare foundation JAAGO. She also takes interest in working as a volunteer in relief distribution for flood distressed.